BOY MURDERED.
Robert L. Maguigan, Jr., 13-year-old son of Robert Maguigan, of Beverly, N. J., who was found hanging to the front stoop of his home on September 23, was murdered by some enemy of his father, instead of having committed suicide as at first supposed. The facts came out at the inquest last night, when the father took the witness stand.
Robert Maguigan is foreman of a large factory at Beverly. He has had numerous differences with the men under him. His most recent trouble was on the morning of September 23. "That morning a colored man came to me and demanded some money. I refused to give him any," said the elder Maguigan. "He told me he would get even, and I would know how he was to take his revenge before the day was over."

Until that night when I went home to find my boy dead. His little sister found him hanging to the front steps, a strap around his neck. He was dead.
"I am virtually sure the man who made the threats did the deed. He killed my boy to revenge himself upon me. I have kept quiet to see if I could not run down the murderer and take the matter into my own hands."
The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the boy had been murdered by some person unknown.
Young Maguigan's body was found by his 8-year-old sister. It first was reported that he had been playing around the front porch and had fallen from the top step, his head slipping in the noose which eventually strangled him. Other inquest witnesses last night testified that they had seen a colored man talking to the youngster. Their description of the man, coincides with that of the negro with whom Maguigan had the trouble, and who threatened vengeance.
Last Friday night the suspect left his boarding house declaring that he was going to Alabama.

MARRIED IN TEARS.
Victor Turner, a New York journalist who has been representing his paper in Paris the last two years, has been detained at the immigration bureau at Montreal, together with Miss Helen Thomas. They both arrived in Canada on the liner Sardinia.
Turner was charged with bringing the young woman into the country for immoral purposes.
Both were later released when Rev. R. W. Dickie married Miss Thomas to George Stuart Richards, a wealthy real estate dealer of Winnipeg, who had hurried to Montreal to meet the girl.
Miss Thomas, who was to be married to Mr. Richards to whom she was betrothed in England several years ago. On the way over she met Turner, whom she is said to have told that she did not love Richards, and that it was only for her father's sake that she was marrying him.
Turner promptly made love to her, and the two became engaged, intending to marry when Montreal was reached.
The immigration authorities decided that Miss Thomas must return to England or marry the man she had set out to marry. While she wept the knot was tied in the immigration shed.
Turner, bringing civil proceedings against the steamship company and the Dominion government.

STRIKE RIOTS IN BERLIN.
Even greater violence than that of Monday night characterized the collisions between police and rioters in the Moabit precinct of Berlin yesterday evening. Many were injured on both sides. The district presents the aspect of a besieged city.
Thousands of strikers and their sympathizers gathered in the streets as soon as darkness fell. A strong force of police, numbering 100 mounted and 500 afoot, armed with revolvers and swords, were stationed at various quarters. They were under orders from the commissioner to exercise severe repressive measures and to use the sharp edges of their swords, instead of striking with the flat. The rioters, about 9 o'clock in the evening, began the trouble, which increased as the night advanced. Excited men and women dashed from place to place, smashing street lamps and the windows of stores, but the tradesmen for the most part had taken the precaution of lowering the iron shutters, and thus prevented extensive damage.
The police charged time after time, wounding many.
Men and women stationed at open windows of houses hurled bottles, bricks, lumps of coal and stones at the police, who replied with revolver shots.

Commissioner Von Jagow drove in an automobile through the precinct about 10 o'clock when the riot was at its height. Crowds of furious strikers and their sympathizers, among whom were many women, howled imprecations up on the police commissioner and his men while flower pots, various household articles and other missiles fell in showers from the windows.
The police entered several flats in Waldstrasse, from one of which a mad-dened woman threw a lighted lamp with terrific force against an advancing squad, burning several of the men. Sharp conflicts occurred in Bueselstrasse, Trum-strasse and Zwinglstrasse. Many shots were fired from the crowd, and the police charged with drawn swords, leaving many injured on the ground.

Scores of arrests were made. The saloons were ordered closed at 11 o'clock and cordons of police prevented the approach of thousands arriving from other quarters. This measure was effective in bringing about comparative calm, but groups of sullen strikers were prowling in the vicinity up to midnight. At that time riots had virtually been suppressed but there were occasional minor disturbances. Twelve hundred police are now occupying the precinct.

The total number of casualties recorded is 100 strikers injured, 13 of them dangerously, and 2 policemen so severely hurt that they were removed to the hospital. In addition there were hundreds who received minor injuries. These proceeded to their homes or sought handy refuge in order to avoid arrest.

WAKES AND SEES NEGRO.
Aroused from sleep at 2 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Catherine Harkins, of No. 20 Carpenter street, Wilmington, Del., was startled to see a big negro standing by her bedside. She screamed and the man dived through the window, fell into a barrel in the back yard, then disappeared. Mrs. Harkins rushed to the street and screamed for help. Two policemen heard her story and started a search, and they found William Robinson, colored, in his home, which adjoins the Harkins home. He had in his possession a receipted bill and a wallet, both of which Mrs. Harkins identified as her property. She and her daughter identified the negro as the man they had seen in their home. Robinson was held on a charge of burglary.

Over a hundred revolver and rifle shots were fired into the home of Suppl. Levi Good and Foreman John Olsen, of the Pennsylvania Gas and Coal Company's mine, at Claridge, Pa., early yesterday. The two families each of which includes half a dozen children, escaped injury by lying flat on the floors of their bedrooms while the bullets shattered their windows and mirrors and brought down the plaster. The attack was made by a large gang of men, but, although the state troopers hurried to the scene, they were not successful in running down definitely any members of the shooting party. There has been a strike in the Irwin coal fields since last March.

THE CHOLERA IN ITALY.
With the removal of the censorship, startling details of the cholera epidemic at Naples are being received. A number of persons have died in the streets and the popular excitement is such that the police have great difficulty in maintaining public order. It is reported that 100,000 persons of the better classes have fled from Naples.
There were 32 new cases and 26 deaths from the cholera in Naples Monday.
Most of the cases are in the most squalid quarters of the city.
Dispatches from Sicily report violent scenes there, the peasants everywhere opposing the work of the sanitary officials.
There are three cases of suspected cholera at Palermo.
The death of a sailor at Leghorn yesterday is believed to have been due to cholera.
Two suspected cases of cholera are reported in Turin.
